Make your front porch a part of your home, and it will make you a part of the World—John Sarris

How many of you remember growing up with a front porch? Was it the place where evenings were spent with the family and neighbors? What World could you see from the porch? The neighbor's yards, open fields, the highway? All of these questions have been going through my mind this past month; especially since speaking with the LMPD about the recent influx of crime around our area. According to the police, most of the thefts occurred because folks left cars, doors, and garages open.

Take some time this month to walk your street with your neighbor. Start at the entrance and walk down together. As you do, look up and look around. How far past your neighbor's house can you see? The next street over, another house, common grounds? What you see, thieves see. Now more than ever we all need to take the front porch approach and be watchful of our family, friends and neighbors. Remember all non-violent crimes need to be reported to LMPD 574-2111 Ext. 5 and not City Hall. As always, call 911 for real emergencies.

I would like to personally thank Jason Stanford, a resident, who generously donated materials and labor for a new roof on the old c-stand at the pool. It is citizens like Jason that continue to contribute and volunteer that make our City continue to be the best place to raise families together!

Our Shred-It event was a great success with a 50% increase in participants. Thanks to our City Council members along with citizens Bill Hunter and Jerry McGraw for their help on that day.

The dedication of the new pergola at the Bill Lile Running Creek Park was a special event. The pergola was built by Thomas Lay, Boy Scout from Troop 321. We are so grateful for his hard work and dedication.

Our City Council voted to strengthen and change our Building Ordinances. These ordinances have been brought into agreement with Metro Ordinances. If you are in need of a copy, they are available at the office.

Get your flags ready for our Flag Retirement Ceremony which will be held November 12th at 11:00 a.m. at the gazebo. Refreshments will be served.

EXERCISE YOUR RIGHT TO VOTE IN THIS HISTORIC ELECTION YEAR!

Congratulations to Mayor Bonnie Jung who was recognized at the Kentucky League of Cities as one of 50 elected officials in Kentucky who received the Level II Excellence in City Governance award. Just an annual reminder that leaves are turning and are beginning to fall. City Hall always receives calls regarding residents using the common grounds and drainage areas as a dumping areas. Please do not abuse City property in this manner.

Eco-Tech picks up yard waste weekly. Please make note this is the time of year that you will want to use disposable paper bags for your leaves. Plastic bags are no longer acceptable for yard waste. If you feel you have a larger than normal pick up, please call Eco-Tech at 935-1130.
